

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: February 4, 2010

Montana HotSpring Spas Provides Grand Prize for Home & Health Expo

Billings, Mont. -- Billings business owner Scott Procriv is providing a personal health sauna as a grand prize to be given away February 20 at the Home & Health Expo at Billings MetraPark. The $2500 sauna comes right from Scott's store; Montana HotSpring Spas located at 2217 Grand Avenue in Billings, and will be displayed along with more of his products during the three-day exposition.

In the hot tub business for over 20 years and owner of Montana HotSpring Spas since 1998, Scott has a deep appreciation for how a hot tub or sauna benefits his customers. From stress management to muscle ache management, Scott hears personally from previous customers who express gratitude for his help in selecting a product for their needs. Several customers even say the greatest benefit they have gotten from the purchase of a hot tub was the creation of quality family time.

Dom Feralio, a sales associate at the store for the last 8 years, confirms this. "It gives me a great feeling to have a customer call me and thank me for creating the best family time of the day," says Dom. "We sell hot tubs and saunas to many types of people for many reasons, so hearing back from them with a thank-you lets us know we are delivering what they want."

As winner of the Billings Gazette Reader's Choice Award for 9-years in-a-row, Montana HotSpring Spas certainly ranks high in customer satisfaction. Scott hopes to expand his customer base by showcasing his products and their benefits at the Home & Health Expo. His business has completed many unique installations in the immediate and surrounding areas and he is always looking for ways to help more people enjoy the benefits of hot tub or sauna ownership.

Visitors to the Health & Home Expo, which is held in conjunction with the Montana Agri-Trade Exposition (MATE) February 18, 19 & 20 at Billings MetraPark, may sign-up for the grand prize by visiting the Montana HotSpring Spa booth and completing an entry form. "I encourage anyone who has ever thought of buying a hot tub or sauna to visit us at the show," says Scott. He also says, "Don't forget to ask us about our trade-show discount."

Scott or Dom can be reached by visiting Montana HotSpring Spas at 2217 Grand Avenue in Billings, or by calling the store at (406)652-7727

XXX

The Montana Agri-Trade Exposition (MATE Show) and the Home & Health Expo are owned by the Northern International Livestock Exposition (NILE). The MATE is held the third week of February and has a three day attendance of over 14,000 people. The NILE is a non-profit organization established in 1967 that is dedicated to the promotion of livestock, agriculture education, and respect of the western tradition. For more information contact the NILE office at 406-256-2495 or visit www.thenile.org.